Gas Rates Are Reduced

15 CENTS IS CUT MADE IN THE GAS RATE

Company Agrees to Accept Reduction to Start With Bills for Month of December

WIRE TO MAYOR

Railroad Commission In Order Grants Reduction After Hearing of Several Weeks

The Railroad Commission ordered a reduction of rates in all towns served by the West Texas Gas Company. The reduction amounts to 15 cents for the first 2,000 feet; 12 1/2 cents each for the next 2,000 and 17 1/2 cents per 1,000 for the next 46,000 feet.

The reduction was granted following a hearing conducted by Olin Culberson director of the gas division of the Railroad Commission.

Col. Ernest O. Thompson wired Mayor C. R. Burrow of the action of the Commission.

R. F. Hinchey, vice president of the West Texas Gas Company, issued the following statement yesterday regarding the reduction:

"The authorities representing the West Texas Gas Company have been attending gas rate hearings with the railroad commission for some time, and upon the determination by the commission of a gas rate schedule for the system after a complete audit of our books by the commission, we told its members that we were willing to accept the rate ordered by the commission and give it a fair trial on our entire system thus passing the savings estimated by the commission to the consumer."

Contracts Awarded on Stafford Hall and Swimming Pool

Contracts were let Thursday at Austin by the Board of Regents for Teachers Colleges for furnishing Stafford Hall, and the construction of the swimming pool.

Bids on the home economics cottage were so much over the money available that this contract was not let.

Farlow Electric Company of Canyon received the refrigeration contract on Stafford Hall. Other equipment contracts went to Amarillo and Fort Worth firms.

C. E. Lambie of Amarillo was awarded the contract for building the swimming pool. Specifications had to be greatly revamped in order to get this bid within the amount of money available, stated Dr. J. A. Hill.

Dr. Hill visited the PWA offices in Fort Worth on the return home and was assured that pending projects, including the library building, were being pushed as rapidly as possible. All of the projects have passed the Fort Worth office, and are tentatively approved in Washington.

Construction of the addition at Cousins Hall is progressing according to schedule. This is the only PWA project under construction at the present time. The work order for the construction of the ten cottages is expected within a short time.

Packages Must Be Mailed Early For Certain Delivery

Christmas Day will be one of genuine vacation for all postal employees, according to order of James Farley, Postmaster General. All offices in the United States are ordered closed for the day.

This makes mailing of packages very imperative since no deliveries will be made during Christmas day.

New Courses Planned Expand W. T. Work

Board of Regents Make Provision to Expand Scope—Will Be Effective Next Year

Authority to offer preliminary courses in law, medicine and engineering and a full course in business administration was granted to West Texas State Teachers College Thursday.

At a meeting of the board of regents in the Driskill Hotel in Austin, a resolution was adopted to materially extend and liberalize the college curriculum.

Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the college, was authorized to convert immediately the department of commerce into a department of business administration with a four-year course leading to bachelor of business administration degree.

Pres. Hill announced yesterday that the department of business administration would proceed as it is at present until the beginning of the 1936 session in September.

The pre-law, pre-medical, and pre-engineering courses will be arranged for the 1936 session. No teacher-training courses will be required for these courses.

John E. Hill of Amarillo, a member of the board of regents, was chairman of the committee, which made the recommendations adopted Thursday.

In presenting the committee report, Dr. Hill informed the board the four-year course could be arranged.

Local Postoffice Makes Record In Sale of Bonds

Guy Harp, postmaster at Canyon believes that the local postoffice holds a record for the sale of government bonds. $70,000 worth of bonds have been sold here. Mr. Harp believes that this is more than any town the size of Canyon anywhere in the Southwest can show.

Christmas Edition of News Will Be Printed Tuesday

The News will be printed early next week in order to reach the readers on Christmas Day.

This will necessitate the printing of next week's edition on Tuesday afternoon.

Advertisers will have an opportunity to place before the people of the county Christmas greetings on Christmas Day through the columns of The News.

Reporters and correspondents are asked to have all of their materials to the office by Monday of next week.

92 Father And Sons Attended Banquet Thursday

Ninety-two fathers and sons enjoyed a Father-Son banquet Thursday night under the auspices of the Hi-Y.

The principal address was that of Pat Henry, Jr., Hi-Y secretary for this district. The program was arranged by members of the Canyon organization and their sponsor, A. K. Goodman, and Rev. J. R. Hicks, Billy Norman, Broughton Harden, J. C. Baker, J. L. Harden, Lawrence Clark, Brynild Vaughan, and Sewel Cox of Canyon, and L. McNeill, dean of boys of the Amarillo High School took part.

This was the largest and most successful affair of its kind ever held in Canyon, according to those present.

CHARGES AS FORGER

West Texas to Plan for Exhibit at Centennial Friday Meet

Ray Nichols, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, has called upon all counties of the Panhandle to have representatives at a meeting in Amarillo Friday afternoon of this week at 2:00 o'clock, the gathering to be held at the Herring Hotel.

The directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce are planning an exhibit at the Texas Centennial, and each county is asked to give its requirements as to the necessary space in order to make a complete display of its resources. The space at Dallas will be free to the counties making the request now.

'Twas the Night Before Christmas . . .

and all through the house, not a creature was stirring—except these tots, who had tiptoed downstairs and knelt in prayer before the cherry hearth just to make sure that Santa would remember them. As if the jolly old rascal could pass them by on his merry round, especially after hearing those appealing prayers! Not old Mr. Kringle! It would break his heart if he forgot any of the millions of boys and girls throughout the world who eagerly await his visit at Christmas-time.

Religious Conference Brings Many Leaders

More Than 1000 People Hear Leaders of Territorial Discuss Problems of Day

"Christianity in the Modern World," was the central topic of the first annual Religious Conference held at the West Texas State Teachers College Thursday with approximately 1000 people attending its two sessions.

After the formal opening of the conference, Dr. R. Thomsen, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, Amarillo, struck the keynote when he said, "The time has come when the church has reached the parting of the ways. It can no longer pretend to be Christian and at the same time Christian war." He declared too, that for hundreds of years priests and preachers have prostituted the church and Bible to prove that wars are holy and that churches of all nations have sent out their men to kill other men and at the same time blessed them in the name of Christian religion.

Bishop Robert E. Lucey, Catholic Diocese of Amarillo, followed Dr. Thomsen with "Building a New Social Order." His talk was optimistic. So far as the United States is concerned he saw evidence of great change in the passing of the recent neutrality law which was tried and found impossible of passage fifteen years ago. He saw, too, an evidence of a new attitude toward industrial problems in those decisions of the United States Supreme Court which show that the United States realizes that the laws of the land may be made to protect helpless citizens from exploitation. Bishop Lucey said in regard to international attitudes: "It is unfortunate that we have so many yellow journals and yellow journalists in this country that we cannot enter a society of nations."

"The man who has the money gets the deference in any community," said Dr. C. C. Grimes, third speaker on the Conference program. Said he, "The strangest thing in the last hundred years is the emergence of the economic man into philosophy that material success is the most worth while achievement." Said he, "Christ"

DOLLAR DAY BRINGS BIG CROWD HERE

More Than 2500 See the Free Picture of Santa at Work Given by Business Houses

SANTA ON STREETS

Schools of County Are Visited Friday By the Business Men of Canyon

Canyon's first Dollar Day sale in several years proved to be a great success, drawing the largest crowd that has gathered in Canyon for many months.

The Dollar Day was a part of the Christmas campaign which was recently planned by the business men, and put into execution by a committee composed of W. A. Warren, Clarence Thompson and Clyde Warwick.

The Canyon News was circulated over the trade territory last Thursday in a special edition which featured the Dollar Day event, and spread the Christmas buying spirit among the people of this section.

On Friday groups of business men left the city with plenty of peanuts and advertising matter telling the people of the coming Christmas events. Practically every school in the county dismissed Monday afternoon in order that the children might see the special Santa Claus picture which was provided free by about 40 business houses of the city. More than 2,500 tickets were taken up at the door of the theater during the afternoon, but many children crowded past the doorkeepers without giving up their tickets. It is estimated that not less than 2,750 children and grown-ups attended the matinee. The picture was highly pleasing to those who attended the show.

W. T. High Will Give Christmas Program Tonight

Following the program the students of the high school will entertain their parents in the gymnasium on the second floor.

New Officers of County in Control Friday

The students of the high school are taking over the affairs of the county for one day.

This meeting is held annually in this section.

Buffaloes Take Two Opening Games Here

Met Aggies Tonight at Goodwill—Schedule Is Made by Baggett—Not Playing Tech

The Buffaloes opened the basketball season Monday and Tuesday nights playing the Greyhounds of Portales Junior College.

Taking the Monday's game 46-24 Monday and 59-19 Tuesday, the team made a good impression on the large crowd which had gathered to see the team in the season's openers.

Coach Al Baggett depended very largely on his first string men Monday night, but made a number of substitutions during the second half.

Tuesday night the Buffaloes were changed often, giving every man a chance to perform.

While at Dallas Saturday Coach Baggett worked out the schedule for the season. One of the heaviest schedules ever attempted by a Buffalo team was made up, which includes a hard road trip early in January to play at Commerce, Nacogdoches, Huntsville, and the three colleges at Abilene.

For the first time since Tech was established, there will be no basketball games with that college. Tech severed football relations several years ago and would not schedule basketball games this year.

The Buffs play at Goodwill tonight, and will enter the tournament at Winfield, Kansas, on Dec. 30 to Jan. 2.

Dalhart and Amarillo have been wrangling over the location of the soil erosion office—that is, Dalhart did the wrangling, and Amarillo got the office. It seems that Washington decided without consulting officials of either city. Unfortunately this is only a part of the movement in this nation to make the big towns bigger at the expense of the little towns. Concentration of government and business in the larger places, at the expense of the smaller towns, is going on and the people of the smaller towns are falling right in line helping make the job perfect. It is almost wasted effort to tell the people of Canyon that by sending their money away from home, they are cutting the business heart out of Canyon to build up the larger towns—yet, that very thing goes on day after day, Canyon getting weaker from a business standpoint at the expense of building up other towns. Many of the good country towns of yesterday are hardly good filling station locations today. Many a good town of today will be a ghost town tomorrow if the local people are not more loyal to their home people. It is a good time for very, very serious thought on the part of those who are trying to keep the small towns alive.

The big independent politicians, headed by William Randolph Hearst, called upon Governor Landon of Kansas last week. Their mouthpiece, Arthur Brisbane, has now started the campaign for Landon, and no doubt he will be a power by the time the Republicans meet. If Landon came from the east, he would be accepted cheerfully by the rich independents who are out to get Roosevelt. Whether or not Landon will ever be acceptable to Hoover and Borah remains to be seen. At the present time the independents are running the Republican machinery, but whether or not the tried and true Republican bosses appreciate having outsiders take charge of their organization has not been revealed. The poll of the Literary Digest has not had a good effect upon the administration, but has injected new life into the opponents of Roosevelt.

Nineteen dogs are reported to have been poisoned in Canyon during the past week. A number of these were strays, which should have been killed, but the major part were family pets which were not classed as a nuisance. Putting out poison is the most inhuman method of destroying dogs. The city officials will gladly shoot stray animals which are bothering the neighborhood, but when poison is distributed, invariably it is found by a number of family pets. Poison is the most terrible method of death that may be administered, whether it be to a person or to an animal. Don't put out poison. If the neighborhood is molested by dogs, call in the city officials, and have the dogs killed in a humane manner.

The proposed session of the legislature for January will not likely be held so early in the year. Yet some money must be raised to wipe out the 11 million dollar deficit and to pay the old age pension. Legislators are fearful from a political standpoint of passing a sales tax on election year, yet see no other way out. Two special sessions have been held and no tax measure passed. It will be well for the Governor to not call the third session until it is assured that sentiment has crystallized for the passage of some sort of a tax bill before piling another big expense on the tax payers for a special session.

"I certainly appreciate the manner in which Canyon business houses have decorated this year," stated a professional man Saturday after making a round of the stores to inspect Christmas goods. "During the height of the depression most folks failed to properly decorate their business houses, and only a few put outside lights at their homes. I hope the fine practice will be resumed in Canyon of decorating the homes with Christmas lights." It is a good suggestion. Let's dig out those lights this week and do some Christmas decorating.

A man and woman piled up in a car on the streets of Canyon the other morning brought forcefully home to business men that the people will see much more of this since liquor is to be freely dispensed. The return of legalized liquor has not reduced drunkenness, as the liberals promised. It has not eliminated the bootlegger, or solved the depression, or returned men to work. It has done none of the things which the wets promised, but increases drunkenness every day.

Students in various high schools and colleges have become disgusted at the behavior of visitors at their football games and have petitioned the authorities to arrest the drunks. It is well that the students have taken recognition of this. If there is to be temperance in this nation it must start in the schools. If the students realize the foolishness of getting soused in public places, perhaps they will seek temperance rather than drunkenness.

If you want to see a pretty sight, drive out and look at the wheat fields. The country is getting green, and the wheat is doing well. Observers of wheat in the Panhandle over a number of years believe that conditions are very, very favorable for a good wheat crop next year if only normal rain will fall in the spring. Prosperity seems to be in the making for the Panhandle section.

That dust storm which broke over the North Plains Saturday is another reminder of last spring, but with good rains soaking the dust bowl this fall, there should be a sufficient growth of wheat, grass and weeds to check the blow next spring.

Ethiopia turns down the proposed peace gesture, since Italy would take a large slice of territory. It begins to look like England and France will take the rest that Italy does not get.

MAJORITY IN AMARILLO
Panhandle Herald: The Fort Worth Star-Telegram is considered the final authority on West Texas and regarded as this region's premier booster.

However, when the Star-Telegram gives Amarillo credit for having the majority of the vote in the 31st senatorial district, headed by State Senator Clint Small, it is time for that newspaper's research department to study the population figures.

The Star-Telegram commented recently on Senator Small's dry record and the fact that his home county, Potter, voted wet. In addition, the paper stated that the majority of the votes of the 31st district was in Potter county.

The 31st senatorial district composes 28 counties from Childress county north and west, and the vote is several times larger than the voting strength of Potter county.

It is probable that the voting strength of Carson, Gray and Hutchinson counties alone is greater than that of Potter county. In fact, Potter county is just a cog in the 31st senatorial district, and many believe that when Senator Small retires it will take a real vote getter to retain the state senatorship at Amarillo.

Senator Small was elected the first time from Collingsworth county. The first state senator from this district, J. W. Reid, was from Randall county.

Too frequently boys from the country gang up and trim the city candidates. Gray county, the leading county in its district, for years has tried to get a state representative at Austin, but the country boys have defeated the candidate regularly.

For three or four terms Lee Satterwhite, then editor of the Panhandle Herald, represented the 123rd district, which includes Amarillo, in the state legislature. He was succeeded for two terms by Clyde Warwick, Canyon publisher, who was defeated for a third term

When Will Rogers Was a Cadet

Thousands of young men donated for memorials to the late much-loved humorist, WILL ROGERS, shown above in an old photo, which has just come to light. This photograph was taken while Rogers was a cadet at Kemper Military Academy in 1898. Shortly afterward, Will got his first job as a cow puncher on a ranch at Canadian, Texas.

by only eight votes.

Thus, for five or six terms Amarillo could not defeat the country boys in this representative district, and it is probable that it would have the same difficulty in an open senatorial race. Clint Small had already gained his strength in the county when he moved to Amarillo.

Amarillo is a big and fine city, but we don't want the Star-Telegram to think that everybody in the 31st senatorial district lives there. There are a few of us living in the villages and on the farms yet.

Prosperity seems to be returning all the way down the line. Even the scavenger reports his business is picking up.

No matter how old you feel now, you are never as old as you are going to be.

Beware The Cough
From a common cold
That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Wild Cherry and Menthol, but also has fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

How Calotabs Help Nature
To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs are one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

Fuqua Talks On Banking In The Texas Panhandle

In chapel Saturday, W. H. Fuqua gave a talk on banking in the Panhandle. His lecture was designed to demonstrate the economic situation to the youths of Texas, commemorating the Texas Centennial.

Mr. Fuqua has lived in the Texas Panhandle for forty-seven years, and is perhaps the foremost banker of this country.

He stated that the present economic crisis would end when people forgot the word fear; fear of losing their jobs and their homes and their money. When people are sure of their jobs more money will be spent and the turnover of money will bring the world back to the 1929 period before the depression.

He also said that banks used to be considered one of the "get rich quick businesses," but now an institution of service for the community which it serves.

He discussed the manner in which the present administration has boosted American business out of the depression.

John Davis and Miss Dixon Lair were united in marriage.

Cox Cuts Frosh Basketeers Down To Seventeen Men

Coach Bob Cox has been drilling his frosh cagers until nightfall and has now whittled his squad down to seventeen men. Those remaining have been impressive in the workouts, and will be hustling to land a position on the twelve man roster.

At this stage, Cox is unable to select a regular five, but the quintet composed of Shackelford, Johnson, Arthur, Speer and Dysart showed great promise in a scrimmage against the varsity, Thursday afternoon. His entire selection has had much high school playing experience and every one will be constantly pushing the starters. The Frosh will commence their season immediately following the vacation.

He estimated the total of the work at $300,000 which includes the $25,000 secured for the improvement of the Museum.

He explained that the Government was investing money and time in state educational institutions because of the popular belief and trust in public education. He predicted that such a movement will in turn reap rich rewards.

'Fireproof' Bush

To avoid stripping of watersheds by future forest fires, Dr. Arthur D. Houghton, of Los Angeles, suggests that tough, fire-resistant plants that he has developed be planted widely, to provide forests that will not burn. He is pictured above with a variety of his "barless" cacti.

Many Readers Start Taking Bargain Rates

Many readers are taking advantage of the low Bargain Day rates which are offered by The Canyon News.

The News is offered together with all daily newspapers and magazines at clubbing prices which save the readers money.

Taking advantage of these rates has been the policy of hundreds of readers of The News, who have learned to save money on these newspapers and magazines.

Every woman knows that any woman could dress on what her husband spends for cigarettes.

In these days of equality, a man has a perfect right to sue his wife on grounds of non-support.

Doubtless it is better to keep silent and be thought a fool than to speak and remove all doubt.

Pension Head In First Statement Regarding Policy

AUSTIN—State Auditor Orville S. Carpenter, recently named Executive Director of the Old Age Assistance Commission effective February 14, declared this week that no one, regardless of race or color, would be discriminated against, and stated that old people will be able to get pensions without assistance from agents.

"Many inquiries regarding our policy toward negroes and Mexicans have been received. Inquiries have asked whether or not members of these races would receive the same amount of pension as members of other races. We want it clearly understood that there will be no discrimination against anyone because of race or color," Mr. Carpenter declared.

"No attorneys, unofficial agents, or firms will be needed to help old people obtain pensions. Applications will be handled through local agents. These have not been named.

"Old people will be able to get their pensions July 1, 1936, if funds are available. Application forms will be given to local agents. All applications will be handled through local men; however, the law provides that an applicant can appeal to the Commission if he or she is turned down.

"Pensions will be given those who are entitled to them if and when funds have been provided. The new law does not go into effect until February 14," State Auditor Carpenter explained.

Mr. Carpenter expects to visit Washington this week and have the Texas pension law approved by the Social Security Board. From Washington he will travel to New York and study the state pension system there, which is the largest and one of the oldest in the United States.

EAGLES AND PRESS CLUB TAKE TWO FIRST PLACES

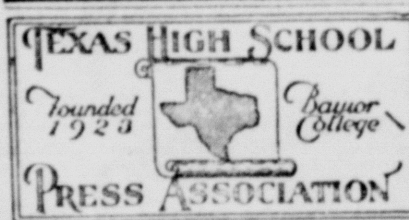

Boy, oh boy, now C. H. S. is headin' for victory. Our "Eagle's Tale" page won third at Belton, an Mary Collins' news story won first prize on a lovin' cup; then our basketball boys beat everybody at Dimmitt and won another trophy. It shore is purty too, cause its a exact image of a Eagle basketball player fixin to pitch a goal. Them boys might not of done much in football, but they shore are good in basketball. I betcha they win state this year.

Wel kids, whatta ye no? I walked rite squar into Mae West parked in front o th school house tother day. Well, Betty Ruth, I hope you an Solly don't freeze to death sumtime, when ye're comin to seale in thet model T Mae West.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

An old negro mammy on Christmas day had very little to feed her house full of pickaninnies. There was no turkey nor were there the trimmings and velvety gifts of a king, not even the poorest of gifts.

When mammy and the children sat down around the table, she said, "Chillen, let us all bow and give thanks to the Lo'd in Heaven. We are thankful fo' our good health; bless the afflicted; help make peace in those fightin' countries across the ocean; bless the poor and help them to have a happy Christmas, and thank you Lo'd fo' the bit we have today."

As mammy raised her head there were tears in her large black eyes, and she said, "Let's invite the Joneses over; they don't even have a meal today."

"You 'member the stories I dun told you 'bout the Lo'd givin' his only son that men might have life everlastin', and that it was through givin' that we came to have Christmas? Jesus taught folks it was more blessed to give than to receive."

After pausing a few minutes, mammy continued in her soft drawl, "Did you know that Christmas is the only holiday that is celebrated the world over? Most of our other holidays are to commemorate some national fete, but Christ came as the Prince of Peace, and maybe the thought of Christmas will put a stop to them fights over across the ocean." And the little darkies learned of the true Christmas spirit.

Grades Present
Xmas Program to
P. T. A. Tonight

A Christmas program, sponsored by the P. T. A. will be given by the children of the grade school tonight at 7:30 in the high school auditorium.

To begin the program, 1A will sing a group of Christmas songs, and Billy Davis will sing, "I'd Like to be a Santa Claus."

"Piss on Christmas," a play, will be given by 1B. A group of carols will be sung by the fifth, sixth, and seventh grades.

2A and 2B will present the play, "Santa's Recovery," which will be followed by a group of carols by the fifth, sixth, and seventh grades.

The final number on the program will be "The Magic Tree," a play given by 3A, 3B, 4A, and 4B. This program is sponsored by Miss Gwendolyn Black and the teachers of the various grades.

Sanders Speaks
To P. T. A. Study
Club December 13

"Curriculum Construction in the public schools of the United States today is subject to the control of numerous principles, approaches, and practices," began Mrs. Dan Sanders in her speech on "Preliminary Aspects of Curriculum Revision" before the P. T. A. Study Club last Friday.

"Religious philosophy," she continued, "has given three principles which influence education: first, preparation for future life; second, respect for personality; and third, social efficiency. With this kind of philosophy underlying the curricula of schools, emphasis must be placed on the development of the child, rather than upon mere acquisition of factual learning."

"Is education a process of growth," she asked, "or a preparation for adult life?"

"Whatever method is used, it is important to have some sort of statement of aims so that there shall be a goal toward which the new curriculum shall move," said Mrs. Sanders.

"Viewing the problem of Curriculum Construction in its larger aspects, three major influences dominate the trend of curriculum theory and curriculum changes. These are the cultural heritage, modern social life, and the child."

Concluding, Mrs. Sanders said in part, "We must teach children how to think—not what to think. Amid everchanging conditions we live experimentally."

"The part of the school is to guide pupils so that they become ever better self-directing in facing life's situations," she concluded.

J. O. Quattlebaum
Talks In Assembly

"If we stand for the right things, we can overcome a lot of unhappiness. Your clothes do not stand out, but if you stand for the right things your character will show it and your clothes won't be noticed," said Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum when he spoke before the assembly last Wednesday on "What We Stand For."

Supt. I. B. Carruth called the assembly to order and Prin. John B. Pope, Jr., closed the assembly with announcements.

and penetrating thing. It comes once a year to everybody; some it may touch lightly and others generously. In some places there is not the delicious eats or velvety presents, but there is that Christmas spirit in that home. No other name will take the place of "Christmas Spirit." It is more than pleasure. What is it? "Happiness" is part of it, and the only thing to call the rest is—"Christmas Spirit."

You may have a whole room full of presents, and a rich man's eats on a table dressed in Christmas colors. The rest of your Christmas is made up of—"Christmas Spirit."

You may not be a rich man. You will have a stocking full on Christmas morn. You have had a lot of fun spending a dollar or two on your best friends and relatives. You will have a nice little dinner on a plain table cloth, and the rest will be made up of—"Christmas Spirit."

There is another home—the home that is not visited by Santa Claus or blessed with unusual eats. Not even the pleasure of spending a dollar or two has come, and the rest of their Christmas was made up of—"Christmas Spirit."

Friday 13 Wields
Unchangeable Luck

Students ideas vary as to whether Friday the 13th is lucky or unlucky. Natalie Flesher will readily agree that it is very unlucky. Who wouldn't if they drank a glass of waving fluid, thinking it was water, of course she didn't think it long.

Then there was Mary Ella Davis who forgot how to spell her name; it wasn't very unlucky—just kind of dumb, but then you've always heard that absentmindedness is a symptom of intelligence, or is it? Anybody would agree that the Eagles are lucky on Friday 13th because it was on this day that they won the first game of the Dimmitt tournament that sent them on the way to win over the entire tournament.

Jean Slack says she is very sure Friday the 13th is unlucky, but who would not if they were at a basketball tournament and about 15 minutes before the first game they found they had lost the shorts to their basketball suit.

On the other hand the students of the Press Club feel kind of lucky inclined on Friday the 13th. They won two high honors at the Texas High School Press Association at Belton last Friday.

Oh, well, nothing can be done about it; so fate will just have to take its course.

Patrick Henry Is Guest Speaker To
92 Hi-Y Patrons

"I am very happy and optimistic on seeing these boys take part so well," said Patrick Henry, Jr., District Hi-Y Secretary, to the 92 fathers and sons gathered at the Methodist Church last Thursday night for the second annual Hi-Y Father and Son Banquet.

Mr. Henry discussed relations between father and son in the home, vocation, and education; pointing out the value of friendship between them.

Billy Norman, president of the West Texas Training School Hi-Y organization, gave the welcoming address, and Sewel Cox, president of the public school club, gave the response. L. McNeil, head of the Amarillo Hi-Y, discussed "Why a father needs a son," and Brynild Vaughan, member of the W. T. Hi-Y, discussed "Why a son needs a father."

A quartet from the college sang three selections, "The Bells of St. Mary's," "The Little Brown Church in the Dell," and "When We All Go to Heaven."

Grades Have Xmas
Program Dec. 13

The grade School met in the study hall for assembly last Friday afternoon at 3:15. A Christmas program was given.

E. Burroughs, Jr. presided. A trio, "Santa Claus Express," was given by Clarabelle Newberry, E. W. Woods, and Dorothy Heath. Betty Guthrie gave a Christmas poem. "Silent Night" was sung by the assembly. Juanita McKee told the story "Why the Chimes Rang." "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was sung by the assembly. Miss Elva Fronabarger told a story entitled "Golden Cobwebs." After this program, Polly Cluck, Retha Lindsay, and Kirby Smart volunteered to tell other Christmas stories.

Supt. I. B. Carruth called the assembly to order and Prin. John B. Pope, Jr., closed the assembly with announcements.

La Terulia Has
Party Tues. Night

Jumping and running over each other when the "pinato" was broken, La Terulia was entertained by Billie Bee Flesher and Gerald Dean Heath at the home of the former last Tuesday evening.

The group sang Christmas songs in Spanish. The "pinato" was broken, a custom that causes much excitement at all Spanish entertainments at Christmas time. Little sacks of candy and nuts fell to the floor as each person tried to get a sack. Games were played in Spanish, and the evening was closed with the distributing of gifts from the Christmas tree. Refreshments of jello, whip cream, nuts, cookies, and tea were served to those present.

Mr. Kiker made a stand table for the small metal cabinets in Miss Elva Fronabarger's office. A new typewriting table has also been installed.

The grade school music pupils of Mrs. Lee Foster are giving her a post card shower.

The fifth, sixth, and seventh grades went carolling last Tuesday evening. They met in front of the school building at 7:30. Miss

Eagles Play Six Strong
Teams To Win
First

Surpassing all performances of previous Eagle teams of the last few years, the boys showed their outstanding superiority as they flew to victory over the Dimmitt Bobcats in the final game of their tournament by the impressive score of 28 to 10.

The Eagles, competing with six teams: Nazareth, Hart, Channing, Spring Lake, Happy, and Dimmitt, found it no easy task to down Channing 20 to 17 in the Eagles' opening game Friday afternoon.

With new determination the Eagles went into the semi-final game Saturday morn'g against the strong Happy Cowboys only to see them drop before a score of 20 to 15. The game was studied by a beautiful demonstration of good shooting and a strong defense.

This was the first time in several years that the Eagles have won a basketball game from the Cowboys.

Entering into the finals against the high-rated Dimmitt Bobcats, the Eagles opened up with their fast breaking to oust them 28 to 10.

The defeat of the Bobcats enabled the Eagles to bring home the large silver trophy which has been placed in the trophy case in the hall of the high school building. Darwin Dobbs, Tom Harris, and Ray Ford Rusk were picked by the coaches and officials as all tournament men. They will receive gold basketballs.

Sports Shorts

Canyon High School has some real athletes it seems. Darwin Dobbs, better known to the girls as "Darling"; Ray Ford Rusk, known as "Bot"; and Thomas Harris, usually called "Tom" came home from the Dimmitt Tournament with gold basketballs. In other words they made the all-tournament team. With the help of "Wellrope" Taylor and "Pat" Cox they brought home the bacon, in the form of a silver trophy.

Jean Slack loves purple and red together; for further information ask her why she wore red shorts with her suit last Friday when the Eaglettes played Oklahoma Lane at the Friona Tournament.

Local Officers Will Take
Oaths Of Office Tomorrow

Unprecedented in the history of Canyon, 14 new county officers will take the vows of office tomorrow morning—the first to be inaugurated in December.

Never before have 14 men been removed from office at one time. What the trouble is nobody seems to know. The officials are slightly young, but here is a wager that they can do what is expected of them. By the way, what is expected of them?

New superintendent of Canyon High School, Lacy Mae Furlow, is envious of the fact that Rotary Club does not meet on Friday. Think of this opportunity of getting in on the inside dope of the Canyon business men.

When Sheriff L. E. Lisle, Deputy Sheriff R. E. Prichard, and Constable S. J. Cox start to command, things are going to happen thick and fast. You citizens had better watch your step tomorrow or you are likely to end up at the office of the Justice of Peace, and Pauline Harris, new officer, might not be so easy with you.

Here is a hint, why not get married tomorrow; it would be one time that the official would be more excited than the couple.

Judge Overton Donnell was certainly disappointed to find that he was unable to call a holiday for the county schools tomorrow, without calling a meeting of the county school board. Wouldn't they be surprised if he did call a meeting?

Mayor O. D. Brietling appointed as new Chief of Police, Herbert Mariner, and night watchman, George Mayfield. The latter can spend tomorrow sleeping because his service is rendered only at night, but what the Chief of Police will do, we will just have to wait and find out.

The new Chamber of Commerce President, Ray Ford Rusk, announces a meeting of the new Chamber of Commerce directors tomorrow afternoon in the court house. In the meeting they will decide a list of recommendations to present to the business men of the town. Can't you just imagine what items Nelson Robinson, Jean Slack, Wilma Cofer, Jack Middleton, and O. D. Brietling will choose to recommend.

Can you feature Billy Greenfield as county clerk; Jean Slack as county treasurer, (there is a chance of missing money here), or Joe Morris as attorney; well maybe not, but some times miracles come to pass, and so it is that tomorrow we will find just these students acting in these places.

The new county agent Jack Middleton, city clerk Mary Ella Davis, and home demonstration agent, Mildred Shuman, will be at their offices in the court house and city hall tomorrow.

Now to let you in on a secret—the civics class has elected as officers of the county and city, members from their class, who will hold office for one day—tomorrow. The class expects to better understand the way in which the county and city government is carried on after this project. The pupils will discuss the offices that they hold and explain their duties to the rest of the class.

tirely too much for a girl your size to eat at one meal, especially when you're at a basketball tournament away from home.

Canyon Eaglettes
Are Defeated In Tournament Fri.

The Canyon Eaglettes were defeated by small scores in the two games they played last Friday at the Friona Tournament.

The Sextet from Oklahoma Lane, taking the lead in the last quarter, downed the Eaglettes with the close score of 21 to 22. Girls that played in this game were Wanda Brock, captain, Jean Slack, Mary Ella Davis, Anna Kathryn Overton, Mary Collins, Billy Greenfield and Kate Eileen Donnell.

JOHNSON MAKES OIL PAINTING OF INDIAN TOWN

PICTURE WILL BE PLACED ON EXHIBIT IN THE MUSEUM

Prof. C. S. Johnston of the archaeology department has just completed an oil painting of an early Panhandle Indian village. The painting, "Restoration of Panhandle Culture Ruins," was created from a village excavated in the Panhandle of Oklahoma, near the North Canadian river.

During the two summers spent excavating the village, Johnston and his wife lived in a dugout constructed among the early Indian houses.

The painting not only pictures the type of dwellings used by the Indians, but shows them doing the daily tasks about the village.

A squaw is hoeing the corn beside her house, while in a large earthen pot on the fire the evening meal is being cooked. A small boy is running out to meet two hunters returning to camp with a deer carried on a pole between them. An old man is anxiously waiting for the hunters to arrive. A dog is scratching his fleas.

The one-room slab houses were not built close together like the pueblo villages of most Southwestern Indians.

Johnson stated that the painting will be hung among the archaeological exhibits in the basement of Pioneer Hall.

Speaking of economy, like charity, it begins at home.

Numerals were awarded to 18 members of the freshman football squad.

Gas Rates

mission on to the people served by us rather than engage in expensive and extended legal controversy with the state commission over its schedule.

"We have engaged in no controversy whatsoever with the members of the railroad commission regarding this new rate schedule, despite the fact that the commission, in its endeavor to reach the lowest rate possible in this section after an exhaustive audit and appraisal by its engineers and auditors, eliminated what we considered many legitimate expenses and charges in the regular conduct of our business to arrive at this new rate.

"We trust that with the added savings given consumers, we may be able to build consumption great enough in a period of time to partially offset the reduction in revenues suffered under the new schedule. Our company has great faith in this section of Texas and believes continued growth of its towns and expansion of business in future years will more than make up for losses we have suffered in the period of depression and will suffer for some time under the new rate.

"Regardless of the decrease in gross income, we intend to give the same service to consumers under the new rate as we have done in the past.

"This new rate ordered by the railroad commission and accepted by the company will effect a saving to our gas consumers ranging from ten per cent on the minimum bill to approximately 20 per cent on consumers using as much as ten thousand cubic feet per month. Added saving will result from greater consumption. The present sliding rate downward will be in effect after the first fifty thousand cubic feet which applies mainly to commercial users."

Mr. and Mrs. H. Whitlock and Clarence Bairfield of Clarendon were Saturday and Sunday guests in the M. S. Miller home.

room. Sergeant Jones brought in eleven of the musicians who entertained the gathering of people which filled the court room to capacity.

Santa Claus was on the streets Saturday and Monday distributing peanuts to the children. He will be on the streets again Saturday afternoon with a good supply of peanuts for all of the children who are down town. They are urged to again meet Santa this week and to tell him what they are expecting for Christmas, and to eat the peanuts which he has for them.

The Christmas campaign of the business houses will not close until all of the people in Randall county are provided adequately with presents.

All of the houses are planning to remain open Monday and Tuesday nights in order that those who have been unable to visit the stores during the day may see the Christmas displays at night.

ranged at small additional expense.

"There are now 301 students enrolled in the present department of commerce at the college," said Pres. Hill. "Inasmuch as the college at Canyon is being enlarged by a building program of more than $300,000 and has a faculty of more than 60 members of notable and unusual scholastic attainment, it seems prudent and wise to offer these greater opportunities to the youth of Northwest Texas."

On the committee of regents with Mr. Hill were R. A. Stuart of Fort Worth and J. G. Ulmer of Tyler, who made a survey at the college.

Members of the board of regents were informed that the college president accepted the authorizations with the strong expectation of making the institution of even greater service to the people of West Texas.

Conference

tianity stands eternally against the attitude of the economic man. Christ's economic program was so revolutionary that many economists have never been able to see it." Said he, "Christ put his seal on only one human organization—the family, and when society conducts itself as a real family, social problems will be solved."

In discussing the present government relief program, Dr. Grimes said, "If industrialists had done their duty in the years past, the United States government wouldn't have to be in the relief business today." In closing he brought the matter of economic justice back to the individual by saying, "If you and I ally ourselves with the crooked rich, the result is our responsibility."

The afternoon session was opened by Miss Margaret Chesmore, director of Girl Scouts, Amarillo, who discussed the spiritual value of scouting and need for intelligent leadership. She showed that scouting offers the girl a chance to achieve emotional control and social adjustment. She spoke of it as a supplement to home and school, but said: "Whether scouting develops or hinders the girls in the troops depends on the quality of the leadership which is challenged." She closed her address with the quotation: "Service to youth is the rent we pay for the space we occupy on earth."

Bishop E. Cecil Seaman of Amarillo closed the program of the day with a discussion of "A Church Home in Modern Life." He said, "The church home is not a thing of the past; the question is, can it survive?" And his answer was, "Christianity has a function as long as the human heart longs for fellowship." He spoke of the home as the center of a series of circles representing the community, state, nation and world.

"We need not fear the modern in the Christian home. Today's home must put its emphasis on respect for personality and must be a little community in which children are treated as people."

Forum discussions under the direction of Miss Oscie Sanders of the Department of Bible of the college closed the session.

Rev. C. S. Marsh, Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, Rev. J. R. Hicks, Rev. C. L. Dickey, Canyon pastors, participated in the program which was planned by a committee of which Prof. S. H. Condon was chairman, and Dr. R. P. Jarrett, D. A. Shirley, Dr. B. F. Fronabarger, Lee Johnson, and Mrs. Geraldine Green were members.

James Cole, Guy Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bowen and baby, and Mr. and Mrs. Levi Cole visited Sunday with F. C. Cole at Lockney.
